Our long awaited new training room built by Australia Wide Transportables has arrived in Marble Bar. Story on page 11.
Recipes of the month

Impossible Pie

This pie seems impossible—it forms its own base, filling and crust!

Ingredients

Serves: 8

- 2 cups (500ml) milk
- 1 cup (90g) desiccated coconut
- 4 eggs
- 1 teaspoon vanilla essence
- 1/2 cup plain flour
- 120g butter or margarine
- 3/4 cup caster or white sugar
- 1/4 teaspoon ground nutmeg

Directions

Preparation: 10min
Cook: 45min

1. Place milk, coconut, eggs, vanilla, flour, margarine and sugar in blender. Mix well.
2. Pour into a greased and floured 25cm pie plate. Sprinkle nutmeg on top.
3. Bake at 180 degrees C for 45 minutes.

Baked Tuna Risotto

Easy one pot dinner

Ingredients

Serves: 4

- 1 tablespoon olive oil
- 1 medium brown onion, chopped
- 1 medium red capsicum, sliced
- 2 medium zucchini, trimmed, halved, sliced
- 1 1/2 cups arborio rice
- 2 1/4 cups salt-reduced chicken stock
- 410g can chopped tomatoes with basil and garlic
- 425g can tuna in olive oil, drained, flaked
- Chopped fresh flat-leaf parsley leaves and finely grated parmesan cheese, to serve

Directions

Preparation: 15 min
Cook: 26 min

1. Preheat oven to 180°C/160°C fan-forced. Heat oil in a large flameproof, ovenproof dish over medium-high heat. Add onion, capsicum and zucchini. Cook, stirring, for 5 minutes or until onion has softened. Add rice. Cook, stirring for 1 minute.
2. Add stock and tomato. Bring to the boil. Cover. Transfer to oven. Bake for 20 minutes, stirring halfway during cooking, or until liquid has absorbed.
3. Remove from oven. Add tuna. Stir gently to combine. Sprinkle with parsley. Serve with
After the wettest January since records have been kept, both February (14.2mm) and March (10.0mm) have been two of the driest on record. For a comparison in March 2007 we had 417.4mm of rain. So now all the long, dense grass that has sprung up from the wet December and January is now drying out and there have been quite a few fires already. Think about where you flick that next cigarette butt and be careful with your campfires. Hopefully we’ll get some more rain soon, but don’t hold your breath. If you fancy yourself as the best jerky maker in Marble Bar start marinating and drying your meat for the Inaugural Marble Bar ‘Jerk Off’ on Saturday 03 May. On the same day the Inaugural Marble Bar Billy Cart Grand Prix will be run down Francis Street. Contact the CRC for the conditions of both events. In the evening following the day’s events, The Seaside Drifters will be playing at the Iron Clad Hotel for the ‘Start of Muster’ Party, an annual event no one will want to miss. So join us for a fun filled day in Marble Bar. Lastly, our long awaited new training room has arrived and is in place. There is a lot more work to do but soon the newest building in Marble Bar will be up and running offering a state of the art training room and conference facilities.

The Marble Bar Community Resource Centre’s new training room has arrived onsite and has been set down behind the old CRC building. Many thanks to the Shire of East Pilbara for clearing, preparing the site and compacting the crushed granite. It is a strong sound base. It couldn’t have been done without a generous grant from Lotterywest and the hours put in by Dean Hatwell the CRC’s previous Coordinator. There is still a lot of work to be done wiring it up for the computers and phones and getting the power and airconditioning connected by Marble Bar Electrical Services. A wide, shady verandah and wheelchair access ramp is planned but that is still a few months off yet. As soon as it is ready we will be moving the CRC and Centrelink Agency over to the new building while the Shire of East Pilbara’s contractors put in a new ceiling (50 years worth of dust up there, thus the move with all our sensitive and expensive equipment) and tiling the front room which we plan to set up to display local artist’s paintings, crafts and any other hand made local products. We want to support our local talent. Once that is done we’ll move back into the original building. The new room will then be available as a training and conference room.

The Dog That Laughed All the Way Home
by Marvin Hunt

As Wayne parked his pickup truck beside his house one day after work, he heard the neighbor lady calling for him to come over to her house as fast as he could. When Wayne got there, he saw his little beagle dog lying on the ground, flopping around like a fish out of the water. The dog was foaming at the mouth and acting crazy. He had a weird look in his eyes.

Wayne carefully picked up his dog and brought him home. He was worried that his little dog had the terrible rabies disease. To keep the little beagle from escaping while he called the veterinarian, Wayne put him in a horse trailer with high side rails that he had in the yard. Then he ran into the house and called the vet. Hurriedly he explained all about the strange way his dog was acting. Sadly, he found out from the vet that the only way to tell for sure if his dog had rabies was to test some of its brain cells. Of course, there would be no way to do this test while his dog was still alive.

Wayne hung up the phone after making an appointment for the vet to see his dog. It looked very bad for his little pet. After making up his mind about what he had to do, he went outside to get the dog out of the trailer. As he walked up, the little beagle got so excited that he jumped clear over the top of the trailer side and landed on Wayne. As the dog struggled to keep from falling, he scratched Wayne's face. Some foam from his mouth fell into Wayne's bleeding scratches. Now Wayne was really worried, because a human can catch this terrible disease from the saliva of an animal who has rabies.

Wayne tied a rope around the dog's neck and loaded him into the front seat of his truck. All the way to the vet's office the dog kept acting crazy. He bit the seat, attacked the gear shift, and kept foaming at the mouth. When he reached the animal hospital, the veterinarian was waiting for them. Wayne pulled his dog from the truck. He seemed more like a wild dog now than a pet. The wise and experienced vet took one look at the little animal and said, "Oh, he's got a bone stuck in his throat! Bring him inside."

Wayne was astonished. He had been afraid his dog would have to die. Instead, the veterinarian simply took his fingers and forced the dog's mouth open. Then he reached down his throat and popped out a bone! It was just a little bone—about two inches long and as big around as a pencil.

Wayne was astonished. He had been afraid his dog would have to die. Instead, the veterinarian simply took his fingers and forced the dog's mouth open. Then he reached down his throat and popped out a bone! It was just a little bone—about two inches long and as big around as a pencil.

Wayne said later that if a dog could sigh with relief, his beagle surely did. Immediately the dog calmed down and stopped foaming at the mouth. Wayne thought he even began to smile, almost like a human. On the way home, his dog sat up on the seat beside Wayne just like a little king, enjoying the scenery passing by.

Thanks to his training, the veterinarian knew just what to do. He saved the dog's life. He had studied and learned all he could about animals, and God had given him the ability and the talent to become a good animal doctor.

Isn't it wonderful that we have special people to whom we can turn when we have special needs? I'm sure Wayne was thankful that he had a good animal doctor to treat his little beagle friend. I know Wayne was glad he was not alone. When the beagle was so sick, Wayne was very scared. He didn't know what to do. Can you think of specially trained people who help you sometimes with things you cannot do for yourself? A doctor? A nurse? A firefighter? I'm sure your mom's and dad's can name lots of special people they have turned to when they had needs. God loves us and hears our prayers when we are in need. And He provides special people to help us when we are in trouble. Let's be glad for them and thank Him for them.

SEATBELTS

If you are a passenger in a vehicle you must wear a seatbelt. If your child is under the age of 7, the following is law:

Children under 6 months:
- Must not travel in the front seat of a vehicle that has a back row or rows of seats.
- Must use an approved child restraint that is rearward facing, properly fitted to the vehicle.
- Adjusted to fit the child’s body correctly.

Keep your baby in a rearward facing child restraint until they reach the maximum limits (9kg or 12kg) and they can sit by themselves unaided.

Children aged 6 months to under 4 years:
- Must not travel in front seat if there are back seats.
- Must use either an approved rearward facing child restraint or a forward facing child restraint with an inbuilt harness properly fitted to the vehicle, adjusted to fit the child’s body correctly.

Keep your child in a forward facing child restraint with an inbuilt harness until the child reaches the maximum weight limit of the restraint (18kg) before moving to a booster seat.

Children aged 4 years to under 7 years:
- Must not travel in the front seat of a vehicle that has a back row or rows of seats unless all the other back seats are occupied by children who are also under 7 years.
- Must use either an approved forward facing child restraint with an inbuilt harness (if under 18kg) or a booster seat with a properly fastened and adjusted seatbelt or child harness.

Keep children in a booster seat until they reach the maximum weight limit of 26kg. If your child is over 7 years and still fits in their booster seat (up to 26kg) keep using it.

Infringements will be issued if you fail to do so, the infringements start at $500 and 4 points. We will not tolerate any excuse for a child not being in a baby seat.

GOODBYE WES

Wes has been at Marble Bar for nearly three years and I am sure you will all agree has been a fantastic member of the Marble Bar community.

Wes has accepted a supervisory role back to Perth and will be back with his partner Katie.

Wes will be greatly missed, and his efforts he has put into the community have really paid off.

I wish him and Katie all the best and thank them for their time and commitment to Marble Bar.

AND FINALLY

As always I would ask that if there are any issues which affect your quality of life to report them to the office. Should you wish to remain anonymous send a letter to our address at Locked Bag 1, email us Marble.Bar.Police.Station@police.wa.gov.au or contact Crime Stoppers on 1800 333 000.
